REPRESENTATIONS BEFORE REVIEW BOARD

John P. Jehl for District IV

Respondent appeared pro se

The Disciplinary Review Board accepted a Motion for Discipline by Consent and held that an admonition was the appropriate discipline for an attorney who accepted $1,000 to represent a client in a guardianship application. The attorney obtained the necessary medical certifications, but never completed the guardianship matter and closed his New Jersey office without finalizing it. The attorney also failed to keep the client properly informed about the status of the matter.
